
Any rule reading only (X, Y, V) returns the same label in both worlds, yet component absence differs wherever $|g(X)| > \delta$.